

VTCT Level 3 Diploma Indian Head Massage (IIHHT)

Who can do this course?

Students who would like to practice a holistic treatment or add to their massage skills. Some prior knowledge of massage is helpful but not essential.

What is involved in the course?

Learning the history of Indian head massage, consultation techniques, and treatment area. Related anatomy & physiology. How to use specific carrier & essential oils for the skin and hair. The understanding of basic chakra work.

What is the qualification and how is it gained?

This Diploma in Indian Head Massage will be achieved through practical assessment on clients, assignments, written tests and a portfolio of evidence.

How is the course taught?

Theory and practical work will be completed at the Glasshouse Therapy Centre (GHTC). Home study is essential to gain experience and further evidence for the student portfolio. Clients will be organised by the GHTC during the course.

What skills will I learn?

The skills required to complete an Indian Head Massage to industry standards.

What will I need to bring to the course?

Students will be required to train in a professional uniform and a therapist's uniform order sheet can be supplied on request. Students will be provided with a training manual. However, notepaper, pens, personal hairbrush and hair clip will be required.

Equipment costs to the student

The GHTC will provide basic equipment to use during the course, however, students will be required to purchase a professional Indian Head Massage kit for training purposes and continued use away from the centre. The kit cost is approx £33. Order form supplied on booking.

Length of course

This is a 2-day course with a final assessment day to be negotiated between the centre & student
